

6.30 Wednesday
19 April 2006
Meeting Room 1
Trades Hall
Victoria Street
Carlton South
2006 lecture series

MARTIN KINGHAM
Victorian Secretary, Construction & General Division, CFMEU; star witness at Building Industry Royal Commission; and Chair of 888 Celebrations Organising Committee.

JULIE KIMBER
Executive Member, Melbourne Branch, Australian Society for the Study of Labour History; and member of the 888 Celebrations Organising Committee.

PETER LOVE
Executive Member, Melbourne Branch, Australian Society for the Study of Labour History; and member of the 888 Celebrations Organising Committee.

Wednesday at the New International Bookshop

Martin Kingham, Julie Kimber and Peter Love talk about the 150th anniversary of the 8 Hour Day in the context of the Howard government's revolutionary changes to the rules for working life in Australia.

There will be ample time for comment and discussion.

Members of sponsor organisations $6, non-members $8, concession $3.

